1. Frontier Troop Otryad [redacted] was stationed in Belogradchik (N 43-38, E 22-41), at least until April 1952. The Otryad barracks were located in the northern part of the city, on the far side of the Aleksandrovo highway. The area was enclosed by a stone wall 1.5 meters high on the side facing the highway and by a barbed wire fence on the other sides. 25X1
2. The otryad occupied eight buildings. The largest one, a 3-story structure 150 x 60 meters in size, had a dining room on the first floor, sleeping quarters on the second floor, and the headquarters offices on the third floor. Fifty meters northwest of this building a 1-story building 70 x 30 meters in size was located. Next to it was a 2-story building 45 x 20 meters in size which was used as a dispensary and hospital. Sixty meters further northwest was the weapons depot, a building 60 x 20 meters in size. Southwest of this was the bakery, and 25 meters southwest of the bakery a few buildings used as kitchens were located.
3. The otryad was composed of 1,000 troops, divided into two battalions, as follows:
  - a. The 1 Battalion was composed of seven companies, the first six of which had two platoons each; the 4, 5, and 6 companies were rifle companies, and the 7 company was the heavy machine gun company; and
  - b. The 2 Battalion included a heavy and a light mortar company.
